Draft List Posted

The list of those who have registered under the selective draft law is now posted at the County Clerk's office in Hyde Park. The numbers on the list correspond with the ones which will be drawn in Washington, and everyone is required to ascertain his number, so that when the lists are published he may know whether or not the government requires his services immediately.

Pony Contestants Working

Candidates in the pony contest are getting busy all along the line and large gains have been made the past week by several hustlers. No candidate has the pony outfit "cinched" as yet and the successful boy or girl will be the one who puts in the most work for themselves.

The outfit will be in Morrisville about the first of August, when all the candidates will want a chance to drive the pony.

Polio in Waterbury

A case of infantile paralysis has appeared in Waterbury, being that of the three years old son of the Collettis' on High street. The child is not thought to be in a serious condition as yet. There have been two other suspicious cases there, but neither one proved to be polio.

Board of Health Will Act

The Morrisville Board of Health called a meeting yesterday afternoon to consider precautionary measures, in view of the infantile paralysis epidemic which is raging in Montpelier and vicinity. It is understood that a family, three members of which are now visiting in Montpelier, will be placed under strict quarantine, if they return to Morrisville. A notice appearing in another column states the situation as the Board of Health sees it.

Another Rumor

The rumor that Dr. Chas. Bates had received word that there would be no one drafted in Morrisville, like other similar stories circulated the past few days, is without foundation.

Breach of Promise Trial

Interest in Morrisville this week centers around the Great Mock Court Trial, which will be given under the auspices of the Woman's Club in the Town Hall Friday evening, July 13.

As was stated in last week's paper, Hon. F. G. Fleetwood will act as the defendant in a Breach of Promise suit brought against him by a certain charming young widow, and has retained M. P. Maurice, Esq., as his lawyer. Not much information in regard to the case has leaked out, and speculation as to the identity of the "widow" runs high. Her counsel, Col. Newton, a prominent attorney from Worcester, Mass., asserts that he has undeniable evidence to sustain the claims made by the young lady, while Mr. Fleetwood and Mr. Maurice are equally sure of their defense. It surely promises to be a most interesting case and one that nobody can afford to miss hearing tried out.

It is understood that the jury is already being drawn and Dame Rumor has it that H. L. Delano will be foreman, while the panel contains the names of such men as Henry Parker, H. Waite, Logan Niles, A. R. Campbell, H. A. Slayton, J. R. Parker, D. A. Saunders, W. M. Sargent, L. P. Thayer, T. B. Ellis and Fred Lunt.

The tickets are selling rapidly so all desiring good seats should not delay about purchasing tickets and having them checked off at A. L. Cheney's.

Miss Lila Blodgett of Danville is visiting her brother, Otto Blodgett.
